

Dear Families,

United Way South Australia is a not-for-profit charity that provides early learning literacy programs to disadvantaged children living in South Australia. As a part of their fundraising, United Way SA sells new quality children's books from loved authors such as Mem Fox, Eric Carle, Alison Lester and Lynley Dodd. All funds go directly to the program to assist children in need.

St Joseph's Kingwood have the opportunity to order directly at a reduced price.

Please see the list of books available below and if interested please complete the order form and payment details on the back and return to the front office. Delivery is within 2 weeks and will be delivered to the school. United Way SA thanks you for your support.
